Applicable in California

For your protection, California law requires the following to appear on this form:

(a) It is unlawful to:

- 1) Knowingly present or cause to be presented any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.
- 2) Knowingly file multiple claims for the same loss or injury with more than one insurer with an intent to defraud the insurer.
- 3) Knowingly prepare, make, or subscribe any writing, with intent to present or use the same, or to allow it to be presented or used in support of any such claim.

(b) Every person who violates any provision of this section is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, for two, three, or four years, or by fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or both.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of a sentence be suspended for, any adult person convicted of violations of this section as an adult under charges separately brought and tried two or more times. The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under this subdivision shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

Except where the existence of such fact was not admitted or found to be true or the court finds that a prior conviction was invalid, the court shall not strike or dismiss any prior convictions alleged in the information or indictment.

This subdivision does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institution code.
